FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOVIN' ON 2017 BATTLE OF THE BANDS WINNER ANNOUNCED

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa., April 4 – Movin' On, Penn State's Annual Music

Festival, is proud to announce Zach Wade and the Good Grief as its 2017 Battle of the Bands Competition Winner.

This year's Battle of the Bands Competition was held on March 25, 2017 in Alumni Hall of the HUB-Robeson Center at Penn State University. At the competition, eight acts of different styles and genres performed for 15 minutes in front of a panel of judges and a crowd of peers. First the first year, bands from Commonwealth Campuses were eligible to apply.

The four-part self-proclaimed "original folk, funk, rock-n-roll" band comes from the Altoona, PA area. Zach Wade and the Good Grief made their Battle of Bands debut this year having been performing together for only a year and a half.

When asked how the band is unique in comparison to their Battle of the Bands competitors, bassist, Devin Pierce said, "We have a huge catalog of original songs that run the gambit from modern rock bluegrass, to Pink Floyd-like jam sessions, as well as creative new takes on old classics from Bowie to MJ.

We leave people dancing, and put a show on like no other. We get up to get down.”

For winning the competition, Zach Wade and the Good Grief will be the opening performance for the 2017 festival. The festival is set to take place on April 28, 2017 on the Blue Band field at Penn State University, with performances beginning at 3:30 p.m. This year’s festival includes performances from Love and Theft, Clean Bandit, D.R.A.M, All Time Low and Two Door Cinema Club.
