MOVIN' ON 2017 LINEUP ANNOUNCED

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa., March 1st – Movin' On, Penn State University's annual music festival, is proud to announce the lineup for the 2017 show, set for Friday April 28th. The lineup includes headliner Two Door Cinema Club, followed by All Time Low, D.R.A.M., Clean Bandit and Love and Theft.

In keeping with the tradition of appealing to a broad range of students, this year's lineup includes some of the biggest names in the alternative, punk, rap, pop, and country genres. Opening the festival after the annual performance of the winner of Movin' On's 2017 Battle of the Bands competition, will be American country duo Love and Theft. Best known for their No. 1 breakout single, "Angel Eyes," Love and Theft is composed of Stephen Barker Liles and Eric Gunderson. The group has earned major recognition within the country music community, including nominations by the CMA's, Academy of Country Music, and Country Music Television Music Awards. Their third studio album Whiskey On My Breath was released in February 2015.

Next on the lineup is Clean Bandit, brought to Movin' On by one of their collaborating organizations, the Student Programming Association. The electro trio rose to fame from their hit single "Rather Be" in 2014, which won the 2015 Grammy Award for Best Dance Recording. The group is comprised of brothers Jack and Luke Patterson, alongside the classically trained Grace Chatto. The trio seamlessly sprinkles classical music into their electronic pop sound. Recently announcing their 2017 U.S. tour, Clean Bandit once again has a No. 1 hit on Billboard's "Dance/Electronic Songs" chart, with the song "Rockabye" which features Sean Paul and Anne-Marie.

D.R.A.M., a Virginia rapper and singer rose to fame after the release of his #1 EPIC Summer mixtape in 2014. He has captivated fans with his breakout hit "Cha Cha" and is now earning double platinum status and hitting No. 1 on the Billboard "Top Rap Songs" chart and Rhythmic radio charts with his single "Broccoli." In 2016, D.R.A.M. released his album Big Baby D.R.A.M., and is described as a mix of soulful jams with upbeat fun anthems, seen in songs such as "Cash Machine". With his magnetic personality and soulful melodies, D.R.A.M. is sure to give the crowd a captivating set.

All Time Low, comprised of Alex Gaskarth, Jack Barakat, Rian Dawson and Zack Merrick, has been creating number one albums and singles for over a decade. The pop-punk group has debuted three consecutive albums in the Top 10 on the Billboard 200 album chart, and has had multiple No. 1 albums on Billboard's Rock Albums and Alternative albums charts. Their sixth studio album, Future Hearts, was named the most anticipated album of 2015, according to Alternative Press Magazine. The album then rose to the No. 2 spot on the Billboard charts with the help of the highly successful single "Something's Gotta Give". All Time Low's seventh studio album, Last Young Renegade, is set to release on June 2nd of this year.

Movin' On 2017 will conclude with a headlining performance from the Irish indie rock band, Two Door Cinema Club. Formed in 2007, the group is comprised of Alex Trimble, Sam Halliday and Kevin Baird. They are best known for mixing guitar hooks with an electric sound to create memorable melodies. The band initially gained popularity in 2010 after the release of their debut album, Tourist History, which included the hit song "What You Know." In October 2016, the group released its third and most recent studio album Gameshow. With the recent release of their U.S. tour dates, as well as planning to perform at The Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival, 2017 is proving to be nothing short of successful for the band. Two Door Cinema Club is sure to bring a lively, upbeat, and vibrant celebration to conclude Movin' On 2017.

Movin' On 2017 is occurring on Friday April 28, 2017 in University Park, Pennsylvania. Movin' On has gained recognition from Live Nation, being named as one of the top five college music festivals in the country. Movin' On prides itself on providing Penn State students with a wide variety of musical genres and artists, creating a capstone event and a yearly send-off celebration for the university's graduating seniors. Entering its 42nd year, Movin' On continues to work towards a goal of uniting both community and music by providing an admission-free festival with more than just a musical experience to enjoy.
